

Kristin Wardour

Principal

As principal, Kristin serves as a trusted advisor to innovative and fast-growing companies in need of great talent. She has over 14 years of recruiting experience focused on SaaS, managed services, and healthcare clients, and has successfully placed leaders in marketing, sales, customer success, operations, and finance. She enjoys partnering with leaders of public, private, private equity, and venture-backed companies.

Prior to TEG Consulting, Kristin was the assistant director of career services and corporate relations at Babson College and the assistant vice president of institutional client service for investment management firm State Street Research (BlackRock). These experiences made her adept at addressing the needs of a diverse range of stakeholders. Kristin received a degree in Psychology from St. Lawrence University.
